St. James's, March 1.

THIS being the Birth-Day of Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, there was a very numerous and ſplendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction: And at Night there were Illuminations and other Publick Demonſtrations of Joy.

Madrid, Feb. 23, N. S. The Princeſs of Aſturias having intirely recovered her Health, the publick Rejoicings for her Arrival were begun laſt Sunday Night, by the playing off the Fireworks prepared in the Square before the Palace, the King and Queen with the Prince and Princeſs of Aſturias appearing in a Balcony of the Palace. The Illuminations in the principal Streets and Squares of the City, were continued the next Night, when a great Number of the chief Citizens, richly dreſſed in Maſquerade, and ranged in proper Order by the Marqueſs del Vadillo Corregidor of this City, paſſed before the Palace, attended by Servants carrying Flambeaux. On Tueſday Night, the Illuminations being continued, their Catholick Majeſties, with the Prince and Princeſs went to the Church of our Lady of Atocha; and in their Return ſtopt at a Houſe in the Plaza Mayor, which had been fitted up for their Reception, to ſee a very ſplendid Maſquerade, of Perſons of Quality, in two Companies led by the Dukes of Medina Celi and of Arco. The Marqueſs de la Fare ſet out this Morning for Paris, and will be followed in leſs than a Fortnight by the Duke de St. Simon: M. de Chavigny arrived here from Genoa the 16th Inſtant. On the 21ſt arrived here a Miniſter from the Czar, to notify his Maſter's having made Peace with Sweden.

Turin, Feb. 28, N. S. On the 24th Inſtant an Expreſs diſpatched by the Count de Saluces brought Advice, that the Marriage of the Prince of Piemont with the Princeſs of Sultzbach, was ſolemnized at Sultzbach on the 15th of this Month; and that the 17th was fixed for the Princeſs's Departure. In the mean Time this Court is preparing with the utmoſt Diligence for her Reception; and Orders are given for every thing to be ready againſt the 10th of next Month, about which Time their Sardinian Majeſties and the Prince of Piemont will ſet out for Vercelli, with the whole Court, to receive the Princeſs on the Frontiers, where ſhe is expected about the 14th. The Marqueſs de Martinengo, one of the Gentlemen of the King's Bed-Chamber, a Subject of Venice, and one of the richeſt Lords in the Territory of Breſcia, is preparing to lodge and entertain her Highneſs with great Splendour, at two of his Seats, in her Paſſage through that Country. As to the Preparations for her Highneſs's Reception here, the Street du Po from the Gate of that Name to the Palace, the Square du Chateau, and that of St. Charles, are to be illuminated by Order from Court according to a Model invented by an Architect; and each Window is taxed at four Livres for that purpoſe. In the reſt of the Town where the Princeſs is not like to paſs at her Entry, the Inhabitants are left at Liberty to illuminate in what Form they pleaſe, provided no Window have leſs then two Lights.

Paris, March 8. The Lord Polwarth had this Day a private Audience of the moſt Chriſtian King: His Excellency will ſet out for the Congreſs at Cambray the Middle of next Week. The Count de Morville is expected here from Cambray To-Day or To-morrow.

Whereas

Whereas it hath been advertized in the Gazette, that the Lords and others Commissioners for the Affairs of Chelsea Hospital, have entertained Doctor Thomas Rentone, in order to cure such In and Out-Pensioners belonging to the said Hospital as are afflicted with Ruptures; these are to give Notice, that he will attend for that Purpose every Monday and Friday Morning, from Nine till Twelve of the Clock, at the Infirmary in the said Hospital. By Order, Kingsmill Eyre, Secr.

February 22, 1721-22.

David Dyas, of the Parish of St. Clement's Danes, having been found Guilty of assaulting two of the Surveyors belonging to the Commissioners for Licencing Hawkers, &c. came this Day before the said Commissioners, and made the following Submission.

I David Dyas do in the most humble manner on my Knees beg His Majesty's most gracious Pardon for a Breach of the Peace by me committed on or about the 5th of August last, in assaulting Edward Twist and Richard Crumbleholm, two of His Majesty's Surveyors belonging to the Revenue arising from a Duty on Hawkers, &c. I am heartily Sorry for the aforesaid Crime and Misdemeanor by me committed, and do sincerely promise a good Behaviour for the future.

Then he begged the Commissioners Pardon likewise, and desired this his humble Submission might be accepted of, certified as required to the Court of King's-Bench, and made publick. Tho. Tomkins, Secr.

Wine-Licence-Office, March 3, 1721-22.

His Majesty's Commissioners for Managing the Duties arising from Wine-Licences give Notice, that Constant Attendance is given at their Office in Arundel-street in the Strand for the Dispatch of the Business thereof on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, in the Forenoon, (excepting publick Holidays.)
